

Oakhill's Homework Menu

Starter

Create a fact file about Tim Peake.

Imagine you are on the international space station—write a diary entry of your day.

Write a story set in space.

Main

Make a space vehicle. Think about the best materials to use.

Create your own night sky painting.

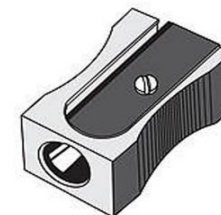

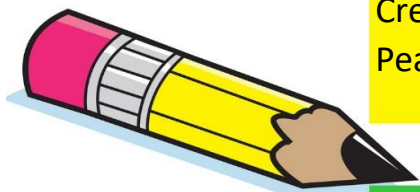

Make a model solar system. Think about the best materials to use.

Dessert

Shade in the moon observation worksheet for 28 days – collect your worksheet from your class teacher.

Create a fact file about the planets.

Draw a bar chart to show the diameter of each planet or their distance from the sun.

Why not try as many delicious choices as you can?

We look forward to seeing what tasty options you choose to share with us.